to you dean hinds . . .

For twenty-eight years Dr. Anthony Keith Hinds has given completely of himself in the interests of a better Western Carolina College and a more enlightened student body. Practically every phase of the college program has felt his influence as he served as professor, department head, chairman of two important committees and member of several others—and for the past two and one-half years as Dean.

A keen intellect and understanding insight into the problems of faculty and students alike have carved for Dean Hinds a place in the annals of this college to be long remembered and appreciated.

He would not want a eulogy. The ties formed in college are many times permanent and unbreakable, come what may. Though Sydney Roberts is no longer with us, his memory will always be.

Delta Gamma Phi local sorority was installed as the Omicron Alpha Chapter of Theta Upsilon Sorority on May 14, 1960. The twenty-four charter members, including two alumnae, were initiated along with their three sponsors, Mrs. Carl Killian, Mrs. Virginia Smith, and Miss Josefina Niggli.

Theta Upsilon, founded in 1941 at the University of California, fosters closeness between sisters, stresses scholarship, and instills in its members a same democratic attitude toward the world at large.

Theta U's 1960 Homecoming display of Mountain Style Homecoming Court, won first place in the Greek Division. President Juliet Godwin was chosen the Ideal Theta U Girl at the National Convention in July. At Christmas the chapter sent a gift box to the Navajo Indians, a Theta U philantrophy. Theta are active in campus affairs, and several hold campus offices.

The sorority's flower is the iris, the colors are the rainbow tints, and the open motto is "Let there be light."

The "Voice of the Students" of Western Carolina has chalked up over a quarter of a century of service to the students and faculty of Western Carolina College. A totally student controlled organization, the Western Carolinian serves as a means of expressing student opinion concerning college affairs, as well as a media of news for the entire campus.

Coming off the presses weekly, the Western Carolinian provides a training ground for future journalists and writers. The offices of the Western Carolinian are located in the Joyner Building.

The Catamount staff, bless their hearts, are the people who try to put this yearly creation out. Composed of only the finest people in the world, these unsung heroes struggle many months and, although their efforts may not always produce the best, they do really do have the interests of the college at heart.

Since shortly after the Bronze Age, the annual staff of Western Carolina has provided a record of the growth and development of the entire complex of Western Carolina College. It is the hope and belief of that staff that the school will continue to grow and develop for many years to come.

baltimore symphony orchestra

The great operas of Giuseppe Verdi and Richard Wagner have played a large part in establishing the honored tradition of grand opera throughout the world. The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, one of the country's leading symphonic ensembles, under the direction of its new conductor PETER HERMAN ADLER is departing from the customary orchestral program format in presenting to its public on this tour an exciting program of some of the greatest scenes and instrumental selections from this popular operatic repertory. Enhanced by such outstanding soloists as FRANCES YEEND and CHARLES O'NEILL, this program of glamor and variety will be one of the highlights of the musical season.

When poet Dylan Thomas called them "Angels in Pigtails," he aptly described these thirty-six enchanting youngsters from Germany. Virtually unknown when they first visited America in 1954, they have stolen the hearts of the hundreds of thousands who have rejoiced to the sounds of the heavenly music they make. And small wonder!

The Fine and Industrial Arts Club of Western Carolina College was established by the students of the Fine and Industrial Arts Department in 1949. James B. Martin was its first president, serving in this capacity for two years. Mr. Martin is now the clubs co-sponsor with Mr. William G. Mangum.

This year the Fine and Industrial Arts Club met on the third Wednesday of each month. It was at these meetings that all the plans were made for the years activities. This year's activities were, the Christmas Bazaar, the preparation of the Homecoming and Christmas scenes, and the F. & I. A. Banquet held in the spring quarter.

The Western Carolina Catamounts, under the coaching of Dan Robinson, assisted by Sid Varney and Tom Young, launched into a football season that ended in a 6-5 win-loss record. These knights of the gridiron saw much rough and tumble action, highlighted by a 41-6 homecoming victory over Elon College.

With a 201-pound line and an experienced backfield, the Catamounts did not reach the heights they expected to in the North State Conference, but their moments of glory on the gridiron did not go unnoticed.

Bounding into the season with a bang, the Cats romped over Catawba College with a 35-0 display of power. The crowd at Memorial Stadium in Asheville saw Tom Broadwater and Jamie Wilkes sparkle with pigskin skill in the non-conference opener.

With a score of 15-0 at the half, the gridmen were able to smother any Indian attack, as well as talley three additional times, to finish with an impressive 259 yds. gained by rushing.

A repeat performance was on the coals for the Catamounts when they travelled to Johnson City to hand the Carson-Newman Eagles a 7-0 defeat for the second straight shutout of the grid season.

End Jim Lovett scored the only talley of the game after fullback Jamie Wilkes blocked a Carson-Newman punt in the fourth period, with Cecil Smith kicking successfully for the extra point. Once again, the Cat rushing was impressive, with a total of 292 yds.

W. C. C. homecoming proves fatal to elon

The Catamounts truly brought homecoming home in style this year by racking up a 41-6 win over the Elon Christians in a North State Conference tilt.

Before an enthusiastic homecoming crowd in WCC's own Memorial Stadium, the Cats pulled down three Elon passes and recovered two of their fumbles to upset the favored Christians with a show of brilliant tactics. Quarterback Ken Morgan and tackle Denny Williams excelled in both offensive and defensive capacities.

The Western Carolina Catamounts travelled to Emory, Virginia, November 5, to chalk up their third straight non-conferenee win. The Wasps of Emory-Henry fought a stinging battle, but quarterback Ken Morgan swatted their attempts at victory by guiding the Cats to an 18-14 triumph.

western carolina ends season with 21 - 14 victory over guilford

Western Carolina's Catamounts finished off the season by crushing the Guilford Quakers in in the Cats' own Memorial Stadium. Jamie Wilkes spearheaded a mauling ground attack that toppled the Quaker defense, downing them 21-14. This North State Conference battle saw the Cats leave the gridiron for the season as they had come on—in victory.

A veteran team for Coach Charles Seeger should be the formula for improvement in the 1961 Baseball season. Danny Sells, Al Dixon, and Charlie Walker should hold down the outfield positions.

Will Parker holds first base while Jim Ray starts at second. Ron Whitaker will handle third base and Jerry Webster shortstop. Leonard Goforth will be seeing plenty of action behind the plate again this year.

Jerry Caskey, last years starting pitcher will be handling the mound chores again this year, backed up by Robert Hilliard, Joe Daniels and Rodney Barlett.

1961 may queen

Dark haired, blue-eyed Love Brendle reigned as Queen of the 1961 May, in festivities held in the Woodland Stage the first Saturday of May. Miss Brendle was attended by a court of 13 young ladies in the ceremonies, and the number proved to be all but unlucky as the traditional pageant unfolded. The Queen and all her court personified the breath of Spring to usher in the May and all its flowers.

But whether studying or passing leisure hours by taking long walks, Queen Love always radiates the Spirit of Spring

THE NAME DOESN'T MATTER

Some People say we should get a new name for it! But whether we call it free enterprise, American Way of Life, or Profit and Loss System, the name doesn't matter as long as we understand that it means hope, decency, courage, dignity and edueation.

Change the name if you like, but be ever alert against those who would change or destory the meaning.
